UNIQUE SUIT

Mrs. Amanda Frost Gets Damages From Mr. George Ort

The Adams County (O.) Record says the damage suit of Amanda Frest v. George Ort, the Otway saloonist, aroused considerable interest in Court at West Union, when it came up for trial a few days ago.

This case was unique by reason of the plainwho sold liquor to her father, John Thompson. and as a result he became intoxicated, and while in this condition caused the home occupied the Queen City from the South on the first rise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The Kittle Mack will be up tonight for Portsmouth, and the Addie T. down from Vanceburg to Cincinnati.

There is no sign of a rise in sight, and many think there will be none until next month. It would not require a very cold snap to freeze up the Ohio at its present stage.

Members of the Ohio River Improvement Association are making great preparations for their annual convention, which will be held at Huntington, W. Va., November 16th, 17th and 18th, and invitations have been issued to all Congressmen within the district drained by the

The completion of the Ohio River Dam No. 6, known as Merrill Dam, will be celebrated with appropriate exercises at Rochester, Pa., Saturday, October 15th. It is the intention of those in charge of the affair to make it one of the most memorable events that have occurred on the waters of Western Pennsylvania.

The steamer John W. Thomas, in the Louisville-Evansville trade, while on a trip to Evansville late Wednesday, struck a snag near Blue butterflies with them. River Island and sank. Passengers were removed to Leavenworth, Ind., by rail and work was at once begun to raise the packet. It was tiff having instituted suit against the defendant found a rock had broken a hole in the hull of the vessel near the bow.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other.
